Ship Launched

As Hundreds Join In

Residents of the Gulf Islands were present in impressive numbers at Burrard Shipyards in North Vancouver on Thursday last when official launching ceremonies of M.V. Queen of the Islands, newest unit of B.C. Toll Authority's fleet, took place. All spoke enthusiastically of the appearance of the new vessel which will go into regular service between Salt Spring Island and Tsawwassen about July 1. Official acceptance ceremonies will be marked at Salt Spring Island next month.

Largest representation on Thursday came from Galiano Island, many of the residents wearing insignia of the Galiano Chamber of Commerce. Mayne, Saturna and Salt Spring Islands were well represented as well.

SPEED OF WORK
Premier W. A. C. Bennett complimented Hon. Clarence Wallace, head of Burrard, on the speed with which the vessel had been completed. It is expected that engines will be installed without delay and that the Queen will make familiarization cruises in her home waters in June.

The Premier spoke with enthusiasm of the province's growing fleet of ferries. The vessels are constantly carrying more vehicles and passengers while gross revenues are showing marked gains. He paid warm tribute to General Manager Monty Aldous and Assistant Manager Ron Worley for the efficient service being provided to the travelling public. He was confident that the new ship will bring thousands of additional visitors to the islands each season.

Mr. Bennett took a quick look into the future. "I'll be very surprised if we are not calling tenders for at least two more ships for our fleet by this time next year," he told the gathering of about 1,000. He praised the serene beauties of the Gulf Islands and mentioned the new home he is building on Salt Spring.

Colonel Wallace pointed out that Queen of the Islands was the 320th hull to be constructed at the shipyards in 60 years of operation. He credited the skill and loyal co-operation of all employees with the speed and efficiency of the construction job.

AT LONG HARBOR

Hon. Earle C. Westwood, minister of recreation and islands' representative in the legislature, also spoke briefly. He explained that the ship will be based at Long Harbor, on Salt Spring, making two round trips to Tsawwassen daily. En route it will call at Village Bay on Mayne Island and Sturdies Bay on Galiano.

Honor of breaking the traditional bottle of champagne over the vessel's bow went to Mrs. Westwood. Her aim was good. The ship slid smoothly into the water and was soon secured by tugs.

Following the launching, company officials entertained at light refreshments at the plant. The new Queen has a capacity of 400 passengers and 40 cars. She is equipped with a bow propeller and has a service speed of 15 knots. A commodious coffee shop will serve passengers.

Go-Karts To Race At Local Track Sunday To Open Season

Go-karting, the sport for "kids" from eight to 80, gets under way this Sunday at the Island View Beach Resort Karting Track.

Sunday's activity will be a preview to the official trophy season, which will commence on June 22. More than 25 karts are expected for the meet on Sunday, and spectators will have a chance to watch some of the best amateur drivers in the business.

For those who have never had the thrill of driving a kart, there will be an opportunity after the races.

A short, slow ride at 20 or 30 miles an hour on the straightaway will convince any spectator that karting is a lot of fun, but one doesn't become a "driver" overnight.

The track is located at the foot of Island View Beach Road, east of the Patricia Bay Highway.

Sidney Artist Gains Acclaim At Jury Show

For "Forms In Moss"

"Forms in Moss," a silk screening by Mrs. Edith Jones, 9156 Cresswell Road, North Saanich, received an honorable mention in last week's controversial jury show in Victoria.

This marks the third time Mrs. Jones has had her work accepted in jury shows on Vancouver Island and it is the first time she has entered a silk screening in competition since she started taking lessons in the art last Christmas. She is presently taking lessons from Arnold Burrell, an instructor with the Victoria Art Gallery.

A person with natural artistic ability, Mrs. Jones did not take any lessons in painting until about 10 years ago. She feels that these lessons have aided her in many ways, especially in color combinations. Mrs. Jones has been a member of the Saanich Peninsula Art Centre for the past four years and a number of her works will be on display at the Centre's 10th anniversary show and tea in Sanscha Hall on May 25 and 26.

As a subject for her award-winning "Forms in Moss," the artist used a small bowl of moss, which upon close examination contains many colorful and tiny flowers. This silk screening will be displayed at the Sidney show later this month.

EXPERIMENTAL RUN

Form Of Night Bus Service For Brentwood In Summer

By BILL CHATTERTON

A once-in-a-while evening bus service from Victoria to Brentwood Bay will be offered by Vancouver Island Coach Lines for a number of weeks during the summer.

The buses will be coming to Brentwood Bay in connection with the popular evening concerts at the Butchart Gardens, and Coach Line officials have agreed to slight deviations in the routes for the convenience of local residents.

The offer was the result of a number of meetings between W. J. Cockrill and E. T. Eade of the Central Saanich Chamber of Commerce and Coach Lines executives. The chamber has been trying to have a regular Friday and Saturday night service to Brentwood instituted for the past several months.

Accommodation For R.C.M.P. In Civic Centre Approved

Proposed accommodation for the Sidney R.C.M.P. detachment in the new civic centre has met with the approval of "E" division in Victoria and the proposals will now be sent to headquarters in Ottawa for final approval.

A rental of $3.50 per square foot per annum will be paid by the R.C.M.P. under the present proposals, amounting to $2,355.50 per year for the 673 square feet of office space. This includes floor space for a general office, N.C.O.'s office, stores, cell, washroom and corridor. Two parking spaces in the staff parking area would also be reserved for use of the police.

TO BALLOT ON PROPOSAL

Vincent Yates, of New Westminster, provincial president of the Old Age Pensioners' Organization, will address the Sidney branch on June 6. He will deal with the proposed affiliation of the O.A.P.O. with the Senior Citizens of B.C.

Keen interest has been shown in the subject. The meeting has been called for 1:30 p.m. at the K. of P. Hall. A large attendance is requested. Balloting on the proposal will follow Mr. Yates' talk.

Kinsmen Raise $500

Promise of a bargain brought hundreds of prospective buyers to Sanscha hall on Saturday afternoon to take part in the annual Kinsmen auction sale.

Property of all kinds was offered and snapped up during the afternoon.

Television sets were disposed of for a few dollars and a complete bedroom suite sold for $31.

Initially, the Kinsmen themselves served as auctioneers. Within a few minutes a professional auctioneer among the crowd, Stan Diamond of Victoria, volunteered his services and he stayed with it

Displays Earlier Work

Award-winning artist Mrs. Edith Jones stands beside one of her earlier paintings which is now displayed at her Cresswell Road home. "Crossroads Web" shows the junction of Cresswell and McTavish Roads before it was reconstructed last year. A recent silk screening by Mrs. Jones entitled "Forms in Moss" received honorable mention in last week's jury show at the Victoria Art Gallery.

Distribution Of Licence Sale Proceeds Questioned

Method of distribution of funds from sale of commercial licence plates was attacked at the meeting of Sidney village council on Monday evening.

Distribution is presently made on a per capita basis, which was labelled "very unfair" by Chairman A. A. Cormack. Council unanimously agreed that distribution of proceeds should be made on a number-of-plates-sold basis.

Sidney has so far received $562.20 for participating in the sale of plates.

To support their contention, council compared Sidney with Central Saanich. Central Saanich has received $885.60 for selling some 70 commercial plates. Sidney sold over 300 plates.

Commissioner Cormack said the return to the village on the sale means very little, barely covering the cost of hiring the necessary extra staff, and considerably disrupting the regular office routine.

Municipal clerk A. W. Sharp told council that the subject will probably be discussed at a meeting of municipal clerks to be held in Victoria later this month, and representation to the Union of B.C. Municipalities requesting a change in distribution could be made by the meeting.

Council agreed to wait until after this conference to study an individual course of action.

TV PLAYER BUYS NEW PROPERTY

Internationally-known stage and television actor, Sebastian Cabot has acquired a further acreage in North Saanich.

Mr. Cabot has purchased several acres in Deep Cove near the Chelut and overlooking the water. Transaction was handled by Sidney Realty Ltd.

The new Deep Cove property owner is a former London actor who has lately been engaged in Hollywood. TV fans will recognize him for his role in "Checkmate" among other parts he has played.

Discover on his return that the items he was specifically seeking had been sold in the meantime.

Transacting in conjunction with the auction was a rummage sale set up by the Kinsmen. The rummage sale yielded another $175.

Proceeds of the afternoon work will go towards the Kinsmen Health Centre in conjunction with the new Sidney Civic Centre.

Yield of the sale was less than last year's total, but by Saturday evening Kinsmen and customers were generally agreed that it had been a busy and satisfactory afternoon.

One visitor sped home to collect his car in order to take away the articles he had purchased, only to

Sidney Ratepayers Face Tax Hike Of 3.5 Mills

Taxes in Sidney will rise this year, due to an increase in both municipal and school levies.

Ratepayers will have to meet a total increase of 3.5 mills over last year. The increase represents a rise in school taxes of 2.5 mills and a general tax increase of one mill. School levy is now 21 mills and the municipal levy stands at 9 mills for a total 1963 rate of 30 mills.

With the one-mill increase in the general purpose tax, the highest assessed residential property in the village will pay a net increase of $32.72.

Commissioners' earlier hopes of maintaining last year's rate of eight mills were not realized due to additional services taken on during the year such as the establishment of a dog pound. The one-mill increase will produce $2,832.29 for the village.

The increase as outlined above will not cause severe hardship to householders in the village. Residences assessed at less than $7,000 will not be affected because of the increase of the provincial government householders grant from $50 to $70. In this group—589 residences in all—the property owner will actually pay less taxes than in 1962. Of the remainder—totalling only 27 properties—increases will be comparatively slight.

Owners of commercial properties, where the household grant does not apply, will feel the full effect of the tax increase, however.

FINAL READING GIVEN SIDNEY SIGN BY-LAW

Final reading was given to a new sign by-law by Sidney village council on Monday evening.

Passing of the by-law follows closely in the steps of Central Saanich, and several of the new Central Saanich stipulations have been included, some slightly changed.

The Sidney by-law requires a deposit of $100 before authority may be granted for the display of any posters in the village. This money will be forfeit to the district if the posters are not removed within 60 days of the granting of authorization.

Maximum size for free-standing signs was increased to 150 square feet from 130 square feet under

DONATION FOR BROCHURE REQUESTED

Sidney council has deferred a decision on a request from the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce for a donation towards the printing of a brochure on Sidney and the surrounding district.

Chamber president D. W. Ruffe advised council that the chamber is presently seeking donations for the brochure from local business men and organizations. Compilation of information for the folder would not commence until sufficient contributions are assured, said Mr. Ruffe.

Present plans are for 50,000 brochures to be printed at a cost of approximately $1,000.

the old by-law.

Penalty for unauthorized display of posters or erection of signs within the village stands unchanged at a minimum fine of $10 and maximum of $100, or 30 days in jail.

Landscaping Of Park In Progress

Landscaping of the new Sidney village park, on Lochside Drive has now started following the awarding of a contract for the work to W. Barker of 1430 Berke St., Victoria. Amount of the contract is $1,920.

The work includes the spreading of topsoil over the 690 by 300 foot area with grading, cultivating and removal of larger debris; floating with a York rake and touching up by hand. Cost of the government-inspected seed for the park is included in the contractor's price. Seed will be sown approximately one pound per 150 square foot, followed by rolling.

The price does not include maintenance work. In submitting his estimate to council, Mr. Barker noted that water will be required in large quantities while the grass is growing this year and fertilizer will be required later and every year thereafter for best results.

TENNIS COURT ONLY FOR TENNIS

Notice will be placed on the tennis court at Centennial Park warning that the courts are to be used for tennis only. Decision was made by Central Saanich council Tuesday evening after it was noted that the courts have been used for a variety of purposes. Even go-karts have been driven on the court, it was stated.

PURCHASE OF STREET CLEANER STUDIED

Purchase of a vacuum cleaner for Sidney streets is being investigated by council. Commissioners will observe demonstrations of various models during the next few days.

Commissioner J. G. Mitchell, chairman of the public works committee, told council on Monday evening that the acquisition of a power street cleaner would save time, money and cut the spread of dust. He estimated it would mean an annual saving to the village of $300 per year.

Last Meeting Until September

Next regular meeting of the Central Saanich Chamber of Commerce will be held in September. Meeting of the chamber last week was the last before the three-month summer recess. For any items requiring immediate attention during the summer, a directors' meeting may be called.

GRANT APPROVED

Grant of $150 was recently approved by Central Saanich council to be given to the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society. A grant is given to the society annually by council.

"Grandmother and the Priests",
by Taylor Caldwell.

Grandmother was a spoiled young lady of fortune and when she became a rather eccentric old lady of fortune she had abandoned the principles and tenets of her faith.

Thus it was that her home was the inevitable gathering place for the community. They not only enjoyed an excellent dinner, but they still sought to teach her the error of her ways.

She takes little further importance in this book of the tales of her visiting priests. Mostly Irish and Scottish, their "Roman" Irish and Scottish were impeccable and at the time of this story's setting far from socially acceptable.

The stories are the book. Each priest recalls some reminiscence and presents the gathering with the benefit of his recollections. Neither Grand Hotel nor Chaucerian, they have something of the variety of the one and the spice of the other.

Expressed in the soft accents of the writer, with her own philosophical sauce, the stories are not offered as factual or feasible. They are simply stories.

The settings range from the remote village of Eire to the rugged northern coast of Scotland. They even hover briefly over an English setting. In terms of imagination, the tales run the gamut of traditional fiction. Yet, they are very much in keeping with the legend of the two countries from which all their characters are taken. When the Irishman thwarts Lucifer it is no more improbable than the Irishman in many another tale who is courted by the little people. Because there are no little people involved it takes on a greater substance.

When the newly arrived priest is faced with the aftermath of a murder trial he pieces together the strands and fortuitously arrives at the solution.

The appeal of this book is not in the tales for their probability or their substance so much as the manner of their presentation. The writer does not simply draw a sketch when she introduces a character. She sees the character and understands him. Her picture then carries with it the sympathy and love that comes of understanding.

In each scene this care and attention to detail is extended into every facet of the story. The reader is frequently left in the situation where he cannot accept the credibility of the situation, but still sympathizes with the characters who are faced with the problems which could not be credited by a hard-headed materialist.

It is a warm collection of tales with the depth of the master storyteller and the careful writing of a meticulous user of the English language.

Despite its length, the book carries regret with the closure of each anecdote that it could not have been extended.—F.G.R.

It's A Dog's Life
-Canine Notes-
By Malemute

The championship dog shows held Friday and Saturday by the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers in the Esquimalt Curling Rink went off very smoothly. With plenty of space available it was possible to set up no less than four rings—two for the championship show, one for obedience trials and the fourth for a terrier special, held on Saturday by the Island Terrier Club. With two rings and two judges, the conformity shows were easily able to keep to schedule and in fact finished earlier than anticipated—shortly after nine each evening.

Immediately preceding the group judging each evening a demonstration was given by a member of the Western Home Guard Patrol and one of their dogs. During the group judging the ring steward announced the breed of the dog being checked by the judge. This greatly increased the interest for the average spectator, especially as some of the 59 breeds are not too well known.

Fewer dogs than usual represented the district, but the calibre of the contestants more than made up for lack of numbers. Between the two shows a dozen dogs from the peninsula competed and collected 11 rosettes and 42 ribbons.

On Friday, competing in seven breeds, they scored six best of breed. On Saturday, competing in nine breeds, they amassed a score of seven best of breed ribbons.

LOCAL DOG TOPS

Top scorer at both shows was the Pekingese Can & Am. Ch. Keating China's Toni owned and bred by Carita Grieve of 7680 East Judge V. Perry on Friday and again on Saturday by Judge G. Donaldson as best in show.

The German Shepherd Ch. Von Greg-Cyn's Commander owned and bred by Mr. and Mrs. G. Iverson, of 5323 West Saanich Road, took second in the working dog class and also best Canadian bred in that group. The Afghan hound Winnamaleigh Tallulah owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Dale of 1854 Stellis Cross Road, took best in breed, while the Afghan pup Ronas Hill Marinka of Merdion owned by Major and Mrs. A. E. Smart, of 1450 McAvish Road, was judged best Canadian bred.

Also competing in the hound group, the Beagles owned by A. I. Dallain, of 450 Cromar Road, took best in breed at both shows, Ch. Spahr's Sugar Sweet on Friday and Sidmontion Youtl C.D. on Saturday, Youtl thereby completing his championship.

In group four the Australian terrier, Australian Champion Wonga Rhon Well Wisher owned by Mr. and Mrs. Iverson, took best in breed; the Irish terrier, Shannon View Danny Boy owned by Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Gent was judged best in his breed, and the Welsh terrier Sandstorm Salute owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Waldron, of 5890 West Saanich Road, also got best in breed rating. Others collecting ribbons were E. J. Dodds, of Brentwood Bay, with his German Short-haired Pointer; J. M. Rowley, 2234 Ardwell Ave., with his Welsh Corgi, and Mrs. R. M. Mulhert, of 934 Greig Ave.,

DAWN OF AN ERA

LONG-CHERISHED dream of the Gulf Islanders materialized on Thursday when the new Queen of the Islands entered the water at Burrard Shipyard. The newly-constructed hull represents the answer to the islanders' long plaints regarding transportation.

Difficultly of communication has been a powerful barrier to development among the islands for many years. Various island groups have fought for improved transportation for years. They have contended that the sea lanes are their highways and that such sea lanes should gain governmental attention and concern in proportion to that attention and concern devoted to highways in other communities.

The provincial government responded to the claim with the promise of a new ferry vessel to serve islanders and give them a direct link with the mainland.

The new vessel is planned as a link between Long Harbor, on Salt Spring Island, and Tsawwassen, serving the thriving communities of Mayne and Galiano en route.

Large island representation attended at the shipyard to watch their dream come true.

The only problem now facing islanders is that of the likely fare structure when the Queen goes into service this summer. No indication has yet been made by the B.C. Toll Authority in this direction. A reasonable rate will bring a new, unprecedented traffic to the Gulf Islands. Of this, islanders are confident. An exorbitant rate would leave the islands unvisited and unknown, they feel.

Undoubtedly this consideration will be closely watched by the Hon. Earle C. Westwood, the islands member of the Legislature.

UNIFORM DRESS

IT is likely that parents of students at any given school will never reach an amicable agreement over the maintenance of uniform dress. There will always be those who welcome the scheme and those who are horrified at the idea.

Sidney school has launched the project after a surprisingly strong support among the members of Sidney Parent-Teacher Association.

As from the beginning of the September term a uniform dress will be in effect. Parents who wish to individuality will be welcomed. Those who rally to the call of individuality will be equally welcomed.

The proposal leaves the parent a completely free choice. Where uniform dress is sought, the children wearing it will be among a group and none will be invited to individually launch a new pattern by himself.

The new plan will undoubtedly be watched with close interest by parents connected with Sidney school and by those who are associated with other schools in the district.

Closest watch of all will be maintained by Mrs. J. O. Hicks, who campaigned for the standard dress and whose efforts will be crowned in September, when it makes its first official appearance.

POOR RESPONSE

FOR the past two decades an annual public-speaking contest has been staged in Saanich School District for senior students. Sponsors of the contest are the Sidney Lodge of the Knights of Pythias. The Knights have maintained the contest on an international basis for 18 years and local winners have the opportunity of travelling across North America to compete in the international finals.

This year saw a poorer response to the contest than any previous event.

If the contest has no value, then it is absurd that it should be maintained over so wide a territory. Its acceptance from coast to coast in Canada and in the United States suggests that it has, in fact, some value in the eyes of academician and students.

The next several years will decide whether the contest is to be maintained indefinitely. If no candidates are forthcoming locally, then its future here is slim.

Before the pressure of another year makes it difficult to prepare, the sponsors should discuss the contest with the schools of the district and ascertain the official stand on oratory as a student accomplishment. With the active support of local school administrations and the co-operation of parents, the contest should become more popular. Without that support, the Knights of Pythias here are devoting many hours of preparation to a lost cause.

Letters To The Editor

WATER

The review editorial last week appeared for water for the people in or around Dean Park. The editorial stated, "the question resolves itself simply: are we prepared to help our neighbors? Yes or no."

Well, that sounds like an emergency appeal. The people who settled in that district know they have to dig wells to get domestic water. If they now wanted piped water all they have to do is hold a vote and if they agree they have to secure the water. The way we are informed and made to believe the Dean Park residents would pay all the expenses for the pipes and installations we are assured the Sidney water customer would not have to pay one cent.

Well, if those people pay for all the work, let them by all means form their own independent water district, let them lay their own water pipes, let them fix their own water rate and let them decide about a water tax. We in Sidney district have to pay a yearly water tax on top of our water rate.

It is not compulsory to connect the water into the house but it is compulsory to pay the water tax. In their own interest and for the future it is better for them to form their own water district and manage their own affairs.

There is another important question which could arise. The Ex-perimental Farm and the whole district belongs to the post office of Saanich, McAvish Road all-vides Saanich post office from Sidney post office. What would happen if Central Saanich wants her boundary reset along the royal route on McAvish Road?

The vote on May 13 would not stand up in court. The provincial government would not uphold such a vote. Only a properly advertised public meeting or a secret vote would make it legal. If the water board wants to go ahead they should bring it in front, not in the back door.

OPPOSED

With regard to the acquisition of John Dean Park area by the Sidney Waterworks District.

I am one of the ratepayers who received a postcard, supposed to be a "ballot", together with a circular letter containing the threat that "non return of the card would be regarded as an affirmative opinion". What kind of a "secret" ballot is this, and why the rush?

Why have not the trustees called a public meeting on such an important issue, so that the rate-

LONG LIST OF ENTERTAINERS FOR "KING AND THE GYPSIES"

An impressive list of entertainers is being lined up by North Saanich secondary school P.T.A. for their musical concert "The King and the Gypsies" to be held at the school this Friday, May 17.

Entertainment will be provided by the following: Wilco, the magicians; Glen Hamilton, violinist; Reno Alverhoy, tenor, winner of two awards at the recent Victoria Music Festival; The Wayfarers, a chorus line of gypsy dancers including local talent and singing sisters, Lynda and Cathy Douma, of Sidney.

Grade eight class of Mr. Russell will continue the theme of the evening by presenting the play, "Pipistrelle".

Door prizes have been donated by Sidney Furniture, Cunningham Drugs, Bello's Beauty Salon, Hol-laway's Flower Shop and Sidney 5c to $1 Store. These prizes are now on display at the latter store.

Tickets for the concert, to commence at 8 p.m., may be obtained from any member of the P.T.A. executive, at the school or the variety store.

Publicity Bureau Given $500

The Vancouver Island Publicity Bureau has received a $500 contribution from Central Saanich. This is the amount the bureau assessed the municipality earlier this year. In its assessment, the publicity bureau asked for a $250 contribution from businessmen in the district and the same amount from the municipal council.

However, of the $500 given to the bureau, $100 came from the businessmen and the remaining $400 from council. The largest amount was raised almost entirely by Central Saanich Chamber of Commerce President Murray Lough, who reported to the last meeting of the chamber that 26 businesses had contributed.

Council advanced two reasons for not granting the full $250 assessment. They were generally not in agreement with assessments made on municipalities through-out the island and felt they would not be justified in giving away that amount of taxpayers' money to the bureau.

Mr. Lough was commended on his work by Reeve R. Gordon Lee at the meeting, who also noted that the president had obtained a substantial number of new memberships during his canvassing.

Students Break Five Records At Track And Field Meet

—North Saanich Secondary

North Saanich secondary school track and field meet last Friday was a complete success with five new records being set.

Winner of the senior girls' trophy was Anne Jeffrey and Dale McIntosh took the individual crown for the boys. Intermediate girls' champion was Bonnie Riemer while Bob Rooke and Bob Loughheed tied for the honor in the boys' section. Junior girls' trophy was won by Connie Matthews with Chris Lott winning the trophy for the latter boys.

Sigma House won the overall championship with 246½ points, with Tripp close behind in second place with 239½ points. Third place fell to Omega House with 226½ points.

All trophies will be presented at the school's Awards Day, to be held on June 14.

New record of 11.1 seconds was set by Bob Jones in the senior boys' 100-yard dash, and in the grueling mile, Dale McIntosh trimmed the time down to a record 5:23.5.

Chris Lott cleared the junior boys' high jump bar at four feet 8½ inches to establish a new record at the school. In the junior boys' broad jump, Alan Kelly, soared 16 feet four inches to break the old record.

Kari Henriksen was the only girl to set a new record at the meet. She tossed the discus 86 feet six inches in the intermediate girls' section, bettering the senior girls' best throw of 68 feet 11 inches.

Outdoor Art Classes At Saanichton

Art classes for students will commence at the Experimental Farm on July 2 and run through to August 15 this year. These outdoor art classes are for children six to 14 years of age and are sponsored by the Federation of Canadian Artists.

Cost for the classes is $10 per child and each pupil will attend classes two days per week. Classes will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9.30 to 11.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m.

Instruction will be given primarily in sketching, charcoal, and watercolors although some of the talented pupils may advance to oils.

Further information and registrations for the classes may be made with Mrs. Robin Mee, 3852 Wilkinson Road, telephone 479-6843.

W.I. Sets Plans For Quilting Bee

May meeting of the Pender Island Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Bridge, with 17 members present. Mrs. Myrtle MacDonald, treasurer, was reported ill in hospital and the secretary was asked to send flowers.

The very successful flower show was discussed.

Date for the quilting bee will be announced later.

Twenty-five pairs mitts, made from men's old socks and eight baby blankets made from two old blankets were reported to have been sent to the Unitarian Services Committee. Sum of $14 was voted for the purchase of a flag for the Brownie pack.

The president reported on her visit, as a member of the South Vancouver Island District Board, to the North Vancouver Island District annual meeting at Qualicum.

"Train up a child in the way he should go..."—Prov. 22:6.

In this day, when the problem of our young people and discipline are in the foreground, it would be good to remember God's Word. Our children are largely what our training makes them. If they have become a problem, can we only blame the child? This verse says to "train" a child. Not just tell him. You may tell him many things but unless you also show him an example he will not heed your words. Jesus not only taught His disciples the facts but He showed them by His life. After being told, shown, and helped to do the thing taught they have been trained that they can do it on their own.

Probably the greatest place of parental error lies in the example of spiritual things. We tell of them of God and His worth, of the need of church and Sunday school but do we show them there—or do we only send them there—or do we only send them there?

OUT OF THE MIXING BOWL

Spring—"Up-Island"

By MURIEL WILSON

Spring is the time for marbles, skipping ropes, falling in love, new green vegetables, dandelions in the lawn and housecleaning. It is also the time to take to the open road.

This time of year everyone should go on a jaunt "Up-Island".

No where will you find more beauty than on Vancouver Island... loveliness is everywhere. From the golden glory of a million daffs in Victoria's Beacon Hill Park to the ethereal loveliness of dogwood seen on every side all the way up to the far end of the island.

One forgets a crazy, mixed up world in the charm of trees leafed in tender green, in freshly ploughed fields, in green meadows where sheep and fat cattle quietly graze. Beauty is around every bend... jewel islands set in a blue-green sea; snow-tipped distant mountains; homes snuggled into the most unexpected places, all with their frill of flowers; small bustling cities and quiet, sleepy towns. Spring greenery hides all ugliness, leaving loveliness dominant. Nature weaves a spell that dispels all the frets of life. Beautiful, beautiful Vancouver Island! Why yearn for far away places?

NEW PEOPLE

Meeting new and interesting people are part of any sort of trip. It is the individualists that make this world the fascinating place it is. Tucked away on a bit of island waterfront is a breed garden and bird sanctuary. Birds who know on which side their bread is buttered live here on the bounty of

COFFEE PARTY

A morning coffee party was held at the home of Mrs. A. McManus, Sr., Salt Spring Island, recently. Those present were Mrs. A. E. Roddis, Mrs. F. Hollings, Mrs. A. Sheffield, Mrs. J. Geer, Mrs. Hays, Mrs. T. Heatherington, Miss Bea Hamilton, Mrs. R. Hewitt, Mrs. A. D. Dane, Mrs. Skelton, Mrs. Peggy Criss and Mrs. McManus, Sr.

... well let's call her the woman in black.

Tall, attractive in finely tailored black slacks, black silk shirt and a scarlet kerchief over her dark hair, this interesting woman loves and charms the birds who inhabit her garden from the tiny hummingbirds to a garrulous Jay called Joe the Freeloader. All the familiar birds... song sparrows, robins, wrens and red-winged blackbirds as well as yellow and purple finches live and raise their families in this garden by the sea.

Housing is no problem for this bird population for custom built houses of every shape and size are available on a first-come first-served basis... all are rent free.

POTPOURRI

FOREGOES ANTAGONISM TO SALESMEN IN DRYDEN

By ROSALIE HEYWOOD.

After the photo contest salesman departed, the woman turned to me with stars in her eyes, already forming dreams of winning the contest: the money she would win and the trip that was also part of the prize. At last I got around to explaining what I was doing there and as I spoke she slowly came down to earth, but it was plain her mind cute one by the back door carried a wee sign which said "Charlie's Snack Bar". An open-front stand with feeding counter along the back and four tiny stools—I mean perches, painted red, in front, for the convenience of "customers".

Although no payment is asked for the hospitality of this garden's seed and lodging there is remuneration... birdsong fills the air from morn to night.

Birds are not the only residents of this friendly garden. Three lizards make their home in the rock garden. There is Grandpa Snazy and the two Jones boys. Reptile, bird or animal, all the creatures here have names. W. C. Fields and a lady wren (we presume she's his wife) live in one side of a tiny, gaily painted duplex hung in a large arbutus tree. The other side of the duplex sports a wee "Vacancy" sign.

The Lady in Black and I found mutual ground... on bread making; (she had just taken her loaves from the oven). By her own description they looked like lumpy Eskimo carvings. They were a funny shape but beautifully crunchy and a delectable flavor. Who cares about the shape? So much for a most interesting aside on our way "up-Island".

No one asked me but here are some of the things I like about my favorite season—Spring.

The over-all tender green of all the outdoors; purple lilac and pale pink tulips in a white jug; the morning sun through freshly cleaned windows; the lengthening days (aided by daylight saving); spring hats; little girls dressed for Sunday school; the tanginess of the first fresh rhubarb pie and all the new local vegetables. "Lord I do give thanks for the abundance that is mine."

wasn't on my speech. I realized I was beaten before I started. No glamorous cash prize or winning of contests had I to offer, just a legitimate subscription to a magazine. How tame and unexciting! But she listened politely then began to talk about the picture.

"Something tells me I've made a mistake," she said. "Why should he accept that picture to enter in a contest?"

I could have told her for I had heard in Fort William of a similar group and it could have been the same one. Perhaps there was a contest of a kind; but I did know that the customer's signature meant she had obligated herself to purchase an expensive frame for the enlargement that would be made. This was the whole idea of the scheme and the dollar was just the beginning.

REGRET

"I wish now I hadn't fallen for his line," she said, "I feel as though I've just thrown my dollar away. Perhaps I would have been better off to have given you the dollar; at least then I would have a magazine subscription."

I agreed with her but felt assured there wasn't another dollar coming forth and there wasn't, so I left. If this group was a day ahead of me in Dryden they'd leave the same trail of suspicious and dissatisfied customers and my chances would be very small indeed.

The boy was waiting for me around a corner; told me his name was "Bill" and it was late so why not quit for the day and he'd walk back to the "Y" with me.

TO DINNER

I was duly introduced to the other two and accepted an invitation to dinner at their table. They joined in with Bill in trying to persuade me to ride with them the next day, but I was determined not to. I was still seething with indignation at what they were doing and how it was affecting me. Bill suggested a walk after dinner but I'd had enough walking so I sat on the porch for a while, all the time listening to him pleading with me to accompany them.

"I've told you I have to finish my work here," I insisted. "And I have my train ticket."

EARLY STOP

"Don't you realize what time the train gets in to Dryden?" he said. "I enquired and it's 3 a.m."

"I'm perfectly aware of that and it doesn't bother me in the least." "What can you do at that hour?" he wanted to know.

"I'll just wait at the station until morning then find a place to stay." He thought this over then said: "Well if you won't come with us at least let me find a room for you."

"Sure, that would be fine," I agreed. "But get a light-housekeeping room for I'll be there at least a week and I don't want to pay board."

"All right," he said, "and I'll meet your train and show you where it is."

"No need for that," I said. "In fact I'd rather you didn't. Anyway you'll be sound asleep by that time."

DRYDEN

The trip from Ignace was dreary indeed. Curled on the train seat, I slept in snatches, then the conductor sat with me and we chatted for a while. At 3 a.m. we'd reached Dryden. It was that mysterious time between darkness and dawn. I was very tired and dreading the next few hours waiting for the town to awaken. The conductor helped me down the steps and then standing on the platform, his eyes heavy with sleep was Bill. He took my bags and started to walk. I trotted along beside him in silence.

"I got you a room where we're staying," he explained. "They only take people to board but I persuaded them to let you have it. Tomorrow they'll bring you dishes and a hotplate."

We walked along in silence. My thoughts were a jumble: a mixture of guilt and gratefulness. I hadn't wanted to accept favors but I was glad I didn't have to spend the next few hours at the station. I should be kinder to Bill!

PAID WITH HEN

Business was better in Dryden. As usual I called on families who treated me like an old friend. Once, caught in a heavy downpour, I spent a few hours at one home, had lunch there and told stories to the children. As for the group of young men, I had decided there was no use being antagonistic toward them. Once, when they drove into the country I went along. At a farmhouse, in lieu of the dollar, they accepted an old hen—alive. They put it in a sack in the back of the car.

"Chicken tonight for dinner, and you're invited," one said.

They presented the landlord with the hen and that night we ate it—a tough old bird—and I could just imagine the grumbling that must have gone on while it was being prepared.

NO EXCUSE

Came Friday night and Bill took me to the one and only theatre in town. I didn't want to encourage him but could think of no excuse to offer.

Saturday brought Ralph from

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR VETERAN PASSES AWAY

A veteran of the South African War and the First World War, Captain Harold William Scardifield, aged 79 years, passed away at Rest Haven hospital on May 8. Capt. Scardifield was born in Sussex, England and had been a resident of Sidney for the past 10 years, residing at 9997 Third St. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion in Markham, Ontario, and a life member of Victory Lodge, A.F. and A.M., in Toronto.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Ann, at home; his daughters, Mrs. T. J. (Joelyn) Dodds, in England, and Mrs. F. (Mary Louise) Baker, of Sidney; four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and his brother, Major L. B. Scardifield, of Sidney.

Rev. Canon F. C. Vaughan, Birch officiated at services held in St. Andrew's Anglican church on Friday, May 10. Cremation followed the services. Sands Funeral Chapel of Roses, Sidney, were in charge of arrangements.

Sioux Lookout. He had said he would visit me while in Dryden as the highway connected. There were no more rooms available at the house so he took a cabin, one of several on the property.

We shopped during the afternoon and collected all manner of foods for a picnic the next day. In the evening we went to the theatre and I sat through the same movie I'd seen the night before. Back at the house I received long and worried looks from the group there; with Bill looking hurt and the other two regarding me as though I couldn't be trusted.

PICNIC

On Sunday we had our picnic by the lake. The day was beautiful, the lake water warm for swimming. However, our afternoon was cut short as Ralph had to leave early for his drive to Sioux Lookout.

When he was gone I went to my room, realizing for the first time that the house was strangely quiet. There on my dresser was a vase with a single rose and propped against it was a long letter, written in pencil, in which young Bill had poured out his heart, wished he could have seen me before they left, and begged me to write to him in Sioux Lookout where they were heading. It made me feel a little sad.

The balance of my time in Dryden was spent with hard work and sometimes baby-sitting for the children where I lived. The days passed quickly and suddenly it was time to move on.

IN AND Around Town

While here they enjoyed a tour of the northern part of the island, travelling to Kelsey Bay, Englishman's River Falls and many other points.

A. Hopkins returned Sunday to his home on Aldous Terrace after leaving Friday to accompany his mother to England. He was able to spend four hours in London before returning to Sidney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gardner, Shoreacres Road, travelled by the P.G.E. Railway to visit their son and daughter-in-law in Prince George.

Mrs. O. Thomas, Third St., has undergone surgery at St. Joseph's hospital and is reported to be getting along nicely. A bundle of seven envelopes containing cards was sent by the Brownies to Mrs. Thomas with instructions that one be opened each day. She was thrilled with this gesture and said she appreciated their kind thought. As the groups will disband until September, she hopes they have a happy holiday and remember to lend a hand.

Pictures Of Orient Shown At Meeting

R. D. Murray, of Deep Cove, provided an hour's entertainment with the showing of his color slides of a recent trip to the Orient at the John's U.C.W., at the home of Mrs. A. B. Cross.

The meeting was opened by the president with 22 members and four guests present. Mrs. Trouil took the devotional. There followed a short business meeting devoted mainly to final plans for the annual strawberry tea on June 15.

Meeting was closed with Mizpah benediction. Following the showing of Mr. Murray's slides tea was served.

With the exception of the furs of the Persian lamb, the astrakhan and the lynx, in the dressing of which Leipsic excels, and of the seal in which London holds supremacy, the United States leads the world in the tanning and dressing of fur.

HAND WEAVERS MARK CHARTER

Victoria Hand Weavers' Guild held a birthday tea on May 4, at Dingle House. Mrs. George Anstey, the president, welcomed Mrs. J. L. White, who had been the founder of the guild over 30 years ago, and Miss K. Agnew, honorary president, who is an ardent supporter of the guild.

Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. G. L. Robertson, Miss F. Daniels and Mrs. H. Steggle, poured tea. Mrs. Hazel Hodson cut the birthday cake.

The beauty of the Dingle House rooms added greatly to the enjoyment of the party. Mrs. Anstey, the hostess of Dingle House, delighted everyone by giving a sketch of the history of the old house and its owners, and telling something of her joy in restoring it in keeping with its original state.

THERE WILL ALWAYS BE ST. GEORGE IN ENGLAND

By Doris Leedham Hobbs

ON APRIL 23, I wore my St. George brooch, in honour of my motherland's patron saint.

St. George for merrie England. The legend of St. George and the Dragon has been "demoted" by Roman scholars. Either St. George did not exist, or he was another George altogether. Who cares? For England, he will remain the manly saint who fights the dragon of evil, and conquers it.

In our minds, we associate his name with our country's highest order of chivalry — the Order of the Garter, first called the "Order of St. George."

The reigning monarch is always the head of the order, which dates back to the 14th century, when Edward III gathered gallant knights together into the Fellowship of the Round Table, which he had built at Windsor.

This was based on King Arthur's Round Table of history and fable. The collar is a chain round the neck from which hangs the "George," a jewelled medalion depicting St. George killing the Dragon, and round it the old French "Honi soit qui mal y pense." The ribbon is a broad blue velvet band edged with gold, and worn as a tabard over the armour of all Crusading knights who fought to free the Holy Land from the infidels. It is, as all Scouts and guides know, the central cross in the Union Jack.

Formerly, English citizens wore the national flower, the rose, on April 23, but since the change of the calendar, roses are not often in bloom on the 23rd, and the forcing of flowers was unknown.

St. George is nearly always depicted on horseback killing the dragon while St. Michael, who also kills a dragon, always has wings to show that he was an angel.

He became a Christian, and one day as he sat at the Imperial table, the emperor said he had just issued an edict for the complete extirpation of the Christians. George rose in his place and owned that he was one of that sect. Diocletian was sorry, but he had no further use for him, but suffered him to leave unmolested.

In the city George saw a crowd collected at the temple gates, reading the edict, and dashing forward, he tore down the parchment. He was surrounded and killed, thus suffering death in the great Diocletian massacre in 303-307 A.D.

The Crusaders going to the Holy wars brought back the story of George to England where he became their patron saint, and the red cross on a white ground

COLOR FROM PLANTS

Through the efforts of modern science, vegetation has many uses unknown a few years ago. Chlorophyll, the green coloring matter of plants, for instance, is used extensively by manufacturers to color food, soaps, candles and other factory products. The carotenoids, the yellow content of plant cells found in combination with chlorophyll, are a valuable source of vitamin A.

Homemaker Service Extended To Sidney And North Saanich

—By Canadian Red Cross

Further service has been extended to residents of the Sidney and North Saanich area by the Canadian Red Cross Society, announced Mrs. G. R. Stuart, secretary of the North Saanich Health Council, last week.

A Homemaker Service has been expanded to include this area effective immediately. This service is designed to give assistance of a limited duration in a home during illness or other emergency. Assistance is similar to what a mother or relative would give under normal conditions.

Housekeepers are carefully screened and are employed exclusively by the Red Cross and wear uniforms provided by the society. They are paid by Red Cross Homemaker service.

When possible, families are expected to pay for the services rendered. Arrangements for such payment are made by the supervisor after consultation with the family. Payments may be made over a period of time to suit the particular circumstances. Any family wishing to use this service should contact Mrs. E. R. Russell, Red Cross House, at 382-5431, or home phone 474-2267.

LOAN CUPBOARD

Mrs. Stuart also reported that during the past year, four new wheel chairs have been given by the Red Cross to the Loan Cupboard located at Red Haven hospital. Four new vaporizers and one air cushion have been donated by the North Saanich Health Council.

The Red Cross annual appeal has now been completed and W. W. Lewis, chairman of the 1963 campaign, and R. L. Christopher, chairman of the North Saanich Peninsula Division, have both expressed their thanks to the residents, and in particular to the following canvassers for their response and work.

A final total of $1,370.17 was collected by these canvassers:

D. Lockhart, Mrs. B. L. Martin, Mrs. A. Cockill, Mrs. M. Roberts, Mrs. L. L. Col, D. S. Mitchell, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Inkster, T. J. Pearley, Mrs. E. Vickerman, Mrs. Pearson, C. Johnson, Mrs. R. Melville, Mrs. D. Mitchell, Mrs. W. L. Rooke, Mrs. H. Rufuse, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. A. R. Trent, Mrs. Kingerlee, J. C. Anderson, Mrs. H. Spence, Capt. Davis, Mrs. Orme, Mrs. H. Pope, Mrs. Stephens.

SERVING WAGONS PURCHASED WITH GIFT

United Church Women met at St. Paul's hall on May 1, with Mrs. J. Pedlow presiding.

Through the generous gift of a friend of Rev. C. H. Whitmore in Winnipeg, the ladies were able to purchase three serving wagons for the hall, also stainless steel coffee or juice pitchers and stainless steel cutlery. Group reports were read and the Bazar Bay unit has asked permission to purchase 12 card tables for the hall.

The Shant Bay group reported a successful hat sale which was held in the lobby of the Gem Theatre.

On April 20, the Victoria Presbytery enjoyed a dinner entered to by the executive and helpers of U.C.W.

Plans are being finalized for the Mother's Day tea to be held in the church hall on Saturday, May 18 at 2:30 p.m. It is being convened by Mrs. J. Pedlow. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction after which refreshments were served.

A tract of good forest land will produce more sugar per year than a similar area given over to sugar beets. Wood sugar, however, is not sweet and is used mainly for cattle, hog and poultry feed.

AN EVENING OF MUSIC BRINGS THREE FROM VANCOUVER

By DORIS CROFTON

An evening of music was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience in Mahon Hall Saturday evening.

The recital-concert, held under the auspices of the W.A. to the Anglican Church, featured Miss Frouda, contralto; Gordon Lund, tenor, and Mrs. Beth Morrison, pianist, all of Vancouver.

Mrs. Morrison's fine technique and sensitive interpretation were evident in her performances of compositions by Liszt, Brahms and Palmgren, and much enjoyed were the variations on "Mary Had a Little Lamb."

The voices of Miss Baker and Mr. Lund blended well in their ensemble singing. Their duets and solos ranged from sacred to art songs, Handel arias, nature songs to hits from musical shows.

A poem, "Memories Are Made of This," by Brian Beech, with musical accompaniment from "In the Woods," by Staub, was well done. Costume skits from "Country Girl," "Chick, Chick, Chick," and home of Mrs. H. E. Ridewood. Event was in honor of Miss Wendy Morris, at whose wedding in June Miss Crofton and Miss Graham will be bridal attendants.

ISLAND CEMETERY SURVEY NOT YET MADE MEETING TOLD

Annual meeting of the Pender Island Cemetery Committee was held in the Port Washington Hall on Thursday evening, May 9, followed by the annual meeting of the Pender Island Community Centre.

The yearly report of the chairman of the cemetery committee, Donald Grimmer, and the financial statement of the secretary-treasurer, S. P. Corbett, indicated little change since the last meeting.

Survey of the new boundaries of the cemetery is still held up due to technical difficulties. It was reported the caretaker was doing a satisfactory work in keeping the cemetery neat, and the grass cut. Contributions for 1963 were being received.

The committee was re-elected by acclamation, with Miss Alice Auchterlonie nominated to fill the vacancy left by Harry Auchterlonie, who has left the island to reside in Burnaby.

OUTLINES PLANS
S. P. Corbett, chairman of the Pender Island Community Centre committee, reported on developments since the last meeting, and outlined plans for future expansion at the centre.

The old memorial hall property had been sold, it was reported, and accumulated monies are now held in trust for an eventual new com-

PENCILLINGS FROM PENDER

ALL ARE NOTIFIED BUT FEW SHOW UP AT MEETING HERE

By VIRGINIA SHIRLEY

The launching of the Queen of the Islands was a huge success, and everyone attending enjoyed it immensely.

It is a good omen—everything proceeding without a hitch—and augurs well for the good ship and the people she shall serve. If she goes into service the July 1st holiday week-end, it's going to keep her nipping back and forth across the Gulf to get all the cars out and back, at 40 a trip. But anyway, it will be somewhat easier in the winter months.

The Pender Islands Farmers' Institute is showing two films in the Port Washington Hall Friday evening, May 17, at 9 p.m., following the quarterly meeting. One, in color, is Understanding the Living Soil, and the other, a black and white, is The Cycle of Life. Both deal with the soil, and the vital part it plays in the life of all creatures and all things, and the films should prove of interest to everyone.

Pender Island has a very beautiful Community Centre property, but so far only the golf course portion of these 50-odd acres is being used by the people for whom it was so generously donated by the former holders of the property. Yet, at the annual meeting last week, only a handful of people turned up. This is discouraging to the executive, which goes to the trouble of circulating a mimeographed sheet to every household, advising of the meeting, in the hope of getting out a representative attendance.

Everyone is busy—in fact we seem to get busier in retirement than before, or else it takes less to keep us much busier. But something should be given to developing this centre, or at least a start at development, to give tangible meaning to the name, and impetus to continued effort toward orderly expansion.

The Islands had more TV film footage taken all over the place last week. They may not be too well known to date, but with all the advertising one way and another in this year 1963 A.D., the Islands will soon be familiar to tourists on both sides of the Rockies, and all points north and south. We'll have to start practicing up on our "quaintness"—or is practice really needed?

ISLAND GOLFERS PREPARE SPRING TOURNAMENT

Annual spring tournament of the Salt Spring Island Golf and Country Club will get under way this week-end.

The qualifying 18-hole rounds will be played May 18 and 19, in competition for the men's Matson Cup and the ladies' Carmichael Rose Bowl, as well as for the handicapped cups.

Members and non-members may compete for the championship Matson Cup and Carmichael Rose Bowl Handicap cups are for members only.

FIREMEN'S BALL AT SALT SPRING ATTRACTS 200

Salt Spring Island Volunteer Fire Department's third annual ball on Friday night, in Mahon Hall, was an outstanding success, with nearly 200 persons dancing to the music of the Gulf Islanders' Orchestra.

The hall had been decorated in the theme, "Prevent Fires," and supper arrangements were in charge of the wives of the firemen.

A donation of sandwiches was received from the local P.T.A.

A door prize, consisting of a garden umbrella, chaise longue and garden chairs, was won by Laurie Hedger, the winning ticket being drawn by Mrs. J. W. Stack.

Floral Display

Floral arrangements of white lilac and pink tulips were admired in the reception rooms of Mrs. A. G. Wilkins' home, Vesuvius Bay, where the Vesuvius Circle W.A. held their annual donation tea on May 8.

The S. J. Leech and Mrs. H. T. Minchin, president of the Circle, Mrs. Wilkins was convener.

Tea was poured by Mrs. G. H. Holmes, Mrs. E. Worthington, Mrs. J. B. Acland and Mrs. James Mitchell.

LIFE of the PARTY

CHARLIE ALWAYS REMEMBERS

Depend on Charlie never to forget, even when his firm suddenly makes him fly up to Prince George on the very weekend we're celebrating a birthday. And sure enough, it was the long distance call he made that eventually got the party mood going.

Charlie is always the life and soul of a party - and how he hates to miss one! As long as he can reach in telephone, bless him, he very rarely does.

Happy Birthday

After 6 p.m. each evening (and all day Sunday) long distance rates drop by about one quarter. Vancouver to Kamloops, for example, can cost as little as $1.05.

Why don't YOU phone somebody near or dear tonight, when long distance calls are cheapest?

SPRING WEDDING UNITES TWO GALIANO FAMILIES

Church of St. Margaret of Scotland at Galiano Island was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, May 11, when Rev. B. A. J. Cowan united in marriage June Marie Blomly and James Graham.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blomly and Mr. Graham is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Graham, all of Galiano.

Coming down the aisle on the arm of her father, the lovely, petite bride wore a waltz-length gown of heaven-blue nylon, with chiffon, over taffeta. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Matron-of-honor was the bride's cousin, Mrs. R. L. Stevens. She wore a waltz-length gown of apple-green chiffon over taffeta.

BRIDESMAIDS

The two bridesmaids, Miss Karen Atkinson and Miss Gina Fox, wore identical gowns of yellow taffeta. All had white accessories and carried bouquets of carnations on tone.

Best man was Lloyd Baines; ushers were the brothers of the happy couple, Rick Blomly and Roger Graham.

Wedding music was played by Victor Zala. During the signing of the register, Mrs. M. E. Backlund sang "O Perfect Love."

The church was decorated with white and mauve lilacs and other spring flowers.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. J. Blomly, wore a dress of blue lace over taffeta. Mother of the groom wore a suit of champagne and brown, both with accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Galiano Hall, which was beautifully decorated for this occasion.

More than 100 people came to congratulate the happy couple on this sunny day. The toast to the bride was given by her uncle, Randy Thompson, of Gabriola Island, replied to by the groom.

The beautiful wedding cake was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. G. A. Bell, and decorated tastefully by Mrs. R. L. Stevens. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of Renie and David Weatherell and Sanford Silvey.

Friends and relations of the bride and groom assisted with refreshments. For the short honeymoon in Vancouver, the new Mrs. Graham changed to a suit of white all-wool boucle, with white accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. On their return they will reside at Galiano.

W.I. MEMBERS ENTERTAINED AT FULFORD

Members of the district board of the South Vancouver Island Women's Institute, and conveners from many points on Vancouver Island and Pender Island, were entertained at the home of Miss Bea Hamilton and Mrs. A. Davis at Dromore, Salt Spring Island, on Friday, May 3.

Luncheon was served at noon after the guests had arrived by ferry from Swartz Bay and Crofton-Vesuvius Bay.

This was another Friday of sunny weather at Fulford, and the visitors enjoyed a walk in the garden during the afternoon. Those who were present were the following: Mrs. J. Robinson, president; Mrs. M. Raper, vice-president; Mrs. W. M. Parker, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. E. Ingram, past-president; Mrs. H. G. Scott, Pender Island; Mrs. A. McGregor, Mrs. E. H. Emery, Mrs. Hazel Woodward, editor of the W.I. News; Mrs. A. W. Smith, from Sooke; Mrs. A. Feather, Nanaimo; and Mrs. E. Braithwaite, Cobble Hill.

Miss V. Salliss, of Fulford, escorted the cars to their destination, and helped to entertain. Mrs. Violet McClaron showed some color slides, a special picture being the signing of the official papers by the board members, enrolling the South Vancouver Island W.I. into the Farmers' Institute and W.I. Incorporation Act. The signing took place at the recent W.I. Workshop at the Royal Oak W.I. hall.

The visitors returned home on the late afternoon ferries.

MAY DAY DANCE AT FULFORD ON FRIDAY NIGHT

May Day dance in the Fulford Hall is being held early this year.

Queen Nancy Reynolds, who reigned throughout 1962 since last May Day, and her royal princesses, Jean and Pat Galbraith, will grace the ball on Friday evening, May 17. OUTLINE FOR TEACHERS

SCHOOLS AND FINANCE ARE EXPLAINED IN BOOKLET

Prepared By Joint Committee

Resume of the structure and facilities of Saanich School District has been published by a joint committee of the Saanich Teachers' Association and the trustees of the school district.

Presented in a small booklet, the summary includes pictures of staff, schools and administrators. In addition to outlining the operation of the district and its 17 schools, the booklet gives a brief story of each school.

The district is a small, compact area, covering Saanich Peninsula and some of the adjacent islands.

Besides listing pertinent data, the booklet also gives an insight into the growth problems which have plagued the board of trustees and which have resulted in the preparation of a series of building by-laws.

Formed by order of the minister of education in April, 1946, School District 63 has steadily expanded during the nearly 20 years of its operation.

UP BY 389 PUPILS

The growth is evidenced by the report on school population. In 1960 there were 1,636 students in district elementary schools and 1,207 secondary school students, making a total of 2,843. As of October, 1962, these statistics had increased to 2,003 elementary students and 1,229 secondary students, or 3,232 in total. This is an increase of 389. The average annual increase has been seven per cent.

By the same terms it is expected that 1966 will see a school population of 4,096. Such an increase, notes the booklet, will necessitate a further nine elementary school classrooms and six secondary school rooms.

There have been constructed 26 new classrooms since 1960.

Schools are financed from two main sources, local taxation and government grants. In 1962 local taxation represented 40.28 per cent of total revenues, while provincial government contributions totalled 56.32 per cent. The remaining 3.4 per cent came from miscellaneous sources.

Expenditures were mainly devoted to instruction. This represents 68.32 per cent of total expenditures. Remainder is split into small sections.

Regarding the instruction services, the booklet reports that Saanich was one of the first districts in the province to implement the recommendations of the Chant Commission by returning grade seven to the elementary schools, including grades eight, nine and ten in the junior secondary schools and allocating the senior grades to a separate school.

FUTURE NEEDS
Warning of the needs of the district in future is given in a reference to the impending call for a senior secondary school in the northern section of the school district.

The booklet has been prepared by the teachers and trustees and its production was financed by contributions from both.

It will be widely circulated in order to give prospective teachers in the district an outline of what the district represents as well as enlightening the ratepayers whose contributions provide the services to school children of the district.

Can It Be Same Tongue? Traveller Faces New Terms

A motor tour through England can be a delight, but the Canadian motorist, driving on the wrong side of the road at unrestricted speeds may shut his toes over the language.

Directions such as this may confuse the Vancouver Islander on his first trip. "Take the dual carriageway to the first roundabout, keeping a sharp eye out for the Left Coming signs. Take the way out just beyond the first flyover after you pass the roundabout. You can't miss it. But beware of loose chippings and crown strollers."

For the benefit of motorists who may be setting out on the open road in Britain for the first time this season, the B.C. Automobile Association offers this brief glossary:

SNOWY MOUNTAIN SCHEME UNDER WAY IN AUSTRALIA

By DORIS LEEDHAM HOBBS
Marvellous things are being accomplished by the Australians. In New South Wales they are engaged in what might be called one of the great pioneering projects of the 20th century, and one which is costing the Australian taxpayer $400,000,000 (Australian).

This is the Snowy Mountain project, which is to make deserts bloom by re-directing the snow water from the Australian Alps in the south-east corner of the continent.

Some 20 feet of snow runs away in spring, through the Snowy River, but unfortunately in the wrong direction. Now, tunnels through the mountains will divert 2,000,000 cubic feet of water annually to irrigate arid land. Besides irrigation, the water will be used as a source of hydro-electric power to supply 2,500,000 kilowatts for the peak load in New South Wales and Victoria. This tremendous undertaking employs weather station officers taking daily recordings of sunshine, testing and recording water in streams high on Australia's Peak Roscinko, 7,328 feet, and laying plans for 85 miles of tunnel.

Water from the Tooma River is diverted through a nine-mile tunnel to the Tumut Pond Dam, one of seven projected, which has a concrete arch 290 feet high and 715 feet long at the crest. Seventeen generating stations receive water carried through a 3 1/2-mile tunnel to the turbines.

Finally, the snow water is channelled into irrigation ditches onto the Murrumbidgee Desert.

Dame Patricia Hornsby-Smith, M.P., who spent seven weeks touring with the British Commonwealth Parliamentary Delegation, writes that more British capital is flowing to Australia than to any other overseas country.

Exports and imports have radically changed since the war, as new markets are opening up for the greatly expanded industrial markets of Australia. Statesmen are urging Britain to cut her losses in Africa with the rising African Independence, and transfer such investments to Australia, where it would be more advantageously in-

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH SCENE OF TAYLOR-KIRK WEDDING

Marriage of Judith Lynne Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney

A. Kirk, 10085 Third St., Sidney, and Hugh Taylor, also of Sidney, was solemnized in St. Andrew's Anglican church on Wednesday, May 8. Rev. Canon F. C. Vaughan-Birch officiated at the ceremony.

The altar was adorned with arum lilies grown by F. J. Baker, and the chancel was decorated with white flowering dogwood and white lilac. Tulips, narcissi and other spring flowers brightened the nave. All flowers were arranged in the church by Mrs. E. W. Hammond assisted by her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Currie.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress in white satin brocade, with an A-line skirt with concentrated fullness in the back and a draped belt. Tiny buttons fastened the back of a matching bolero with high neck and long sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held by a small crown of pearls, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Bridesmaid Miss Sue Battarbury, of Oak Bay, was gowned in a silk sheath in peach and beige print and scooped neckline. Beige gloves and a peach flower held her net in place. She carried a bouquet of cream carnations. Organist for the wedding was Mrs. E. Richardson.

Best man was James Cochrane of Victoria, and ushering guests to their pews were Edwin Donald of Deep Cove, and Melvin Dear of Sidney.

For the reception at St. Andrew's rectory, the bride's mother received wearing a navy blue suit with beige accessories. Toast to the bride was proposed by Canon Vaughan-Birch.

Here are a few examples:

Bonnet—Hood;
Silencer—Muffler;
Saloon—Sedan;
Boot—Trunk;
Windscreen—Windshield;
Spanner—Wrench;
Petrol—Gasoline;
Lamps—Lights;
Wings—Fenders.

Mastery of left-hand driving—the rule of the road in Britain—is comparatively simple. It seems strange at first to drive on the left, but after 15 or 20 minutes it comes quite naturally.

The island is a compact one, and distances between towns and points of interest are not as in this country. Although there is no speed limit on the country highways, the driver will find himself falling naturally into the habit of taking his time. There is so much to see he won't want to hurry.

Britain's main roads in general are good, but the country lanes may be bumpy, winding and narrow.

Courtesy is another rule of the road in Britain, and the British driver will usually signal when the road ahead is clear enough to pass.

The bride changed to a light brown wool suit with rust and bone colored accessories before leaving on a honeymoon up-Island. On their return, the couple will live on Rockland Ave. in Victoria.

Out-of-town guests included the sister of the bride, Mrs. D. P. Broadfoot, of Kamloops; the bride's brother, J. P. Kirk, Denman Island; Mr. and Mrs. H. Beise of Duncan, and Miss Thornhill from Crowborough, Sussex, England.
